York Home Journal, Harper's Weekly, Frank
Leslie and Ledger for this week.

Hous's ALL.—The reader's attention is saked to the advertisement of Mr. Hume, on the second page. His "Light Musty Ale" has already acquired a wide reputation.

H. & M. Overses.—This brand of Balti-more oysters is familiar to our citisens as household words. They can be had at Robert Orr's, No. 11 West Fifth, together with other delicacies of Eastern importation. If you want the best in market, go to No. 11 West Cavagna's.—Our citizens, when in want of superb oysters, can be suited, undoubtedly, at Cavagna's, No. 31 West Fifth-street. He never fails in rendering entire satisfaction to those who favor him with a call. Go and purchase a cap, and judge of their excellent qualities.

COURT OF DEATH.—A very beautiful chromo-lithographic engraving of this grand concep-tion of Rembrandt Peals can be seen at Wis-well's, on Fourth-street. One hundred thou-sand have been issued, at one dollar, instead of a limited number at ten dollars. The tints are very fine, and are produced by successive printings in oil colors. It is one of the finest specimens of American art.

LECTURE BEYORS THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTE C. A. Marsorati, Esq., from Aix-la-Chapelle, will deliver a lecture to-morrow evening, before the members of the Catholic Institute, at Metropolitan Hall, corner of Ninth and Walnut. The exercises, it is said, will be more than ordinarily interesting, and the lecturer will doubtless attract a large audience.

MUSICAL EMAMINATION AT THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The last of the semi-annual examinations of the classes in music at the Public Schools will take place on Monday afternoon, from half-past one to half-past four, at the Second Intermediate and Third District Schools, on Elion-street, between Lock and Baum. The friends of the pupils are earnestly requested to attend.

PROGREDINGS OF THE COURTY COMMISSIONERS.
At their regular session, yesterday morning, the County Commissioners passed orders amounting in the aggregate to $137 83. A communication was also received from G. Brashears, asking the County to grant a company, of which he is a member, the privilege of constructing a street-railread from Cumminaville to a point on the Carthage Road, of the residence of Mr. Ross; but no action was taken upon it. taken upon it.

Surround Suidide.—Yesterday afternoon a coat and hat, together with some other articles of male wearing apparel, were found upon the bank of the river, in Storrs Township, and the circumstances surrounding them, although nothing positive is known in regard to the matter, seem to indicate that they had been placed there by some one who afterward threw himself into the water and was drowned. The clothing is in the hands of Constable Schnell, of Storrs, and may be seen by any persons who have missing friends.

day night of last week, a man named Stephen Hamel, residing on Liberty-street near Sycamore, being deprived of sleep by the noise of some cats which occupied a room immediately over his head, arose and went up stairs for the purpose of driving them out of the house. While attempting to do so one of them jumped upon and bit his face and hands very severely. The next day he was taken quite iil, his face and head became swollen, and, in spite of the endeavors of his physician, he grew worse, and finally unconsolous until yesterday, when he died from the effect of the wounds the animal inflicted upon him. day night of last week, a man named Staphen

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED SWINDLER.—Officer Schuyler, of the Thirteenth Ward police, arrested a man who calls himself Dr. William Lawson, last evening, and confined him in the Hammond-street Station-house, upon a charge of obtaining money by false pretunes. It appears that he met a colored woman, on her way from Chiesgo to Cincinnati, a few days ago, who made some inquiries of him in regard to obtaining a house in this city, and agreed to furnish her with one, provided she gave him sufficient security. By this means he obtained $50, and, upon his arrival, took the woman to the Dumas House, where he left her; but his having failed to show himself since, his description was given to the officer, who, as we have said, apprehended him yesterday, and committed him to await an examination before Judge Lowe. Lola Montez's Lecture This Evening.—
The famous Lols Montez will lecture this evening, at the Melodeon, on "John Bull at Home," and will, doubtless, fill the hall to its utmost capacity. Since her arrival here, her energetic agent, Mr. H. Burr, has received letters inviting her to lecture at Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Terre Haute, Chicago and various cities, in several of them before literary societies.

The Countess of Lansfeldt is said, by the best critics, to be particularly adapted to the rostram, and her lectures are represented as strikingly original in manner, matter and style and of highly magnetic properties. We have no doubt she can deliver a course here to the great gratification of the community and her own pecuniary advantages, especially as she has never before appeared as a lecturess before a Cincinnati auditory.

MECHANICS'AND MARUPACTURERS' EXCRARGE.
The attendance at the regular daily meeting of the Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Exchange yesterday morning was much larger than usual, and more than an ordinary interest was manifested in the proceedings. President Bunyan occupied the chair, and after the minutes of the last proceedings had been read and approved the following persons were elected to mambership: Æins Insurance Cumpany, proposed by Hinkis, Guild & Co. Hugh Glasgow, expenser and builder; J. C. Shroyer, spleemills; proposed by Barrett and McBride. Wm. Woods & Co., white lead manufacturers; proposed by Masiey & Co. M. A. Conway, painter; proposed by Taylor & Faulkner. City Insurance Company; proposed by E. B. Moore. C. B. Dobell, furniture manufacturer; proposed by Bird & Burrows. Elmse & Forkner, fron founders; proposed by A. M. Cook.

From our daily report it will be seen that the number of the members of the Exchange is gradually on the increase, and as it is in an excellent condition financially, we doubt not its influence upon the general business of the city will seen be fall to an extent which will surprise those who have not taken notice of its transactions.

The business brought before the Board year-torday was not generally interesting, and after Mr. Hedges had announced that the Committee on Law will offer their report to the Exchange this morning the meeting adjourned. MECHANICS' AND MANUPACTURERS' EXCHANGE

One of the most dishested and destardly attempts at seasofination that ever occurred in this city, took place are ming before last. What the causes were which led to it, no one, as yet, has been able in determine; and the fact that it was a failure it only to be ascribed to circumstances over which the would-be homicide could have no source.

The editorial room of the Voltsbiatt is located on the ground floer of the Ocurri-house, on Main-street, and is occupied solely by Stephen Moliter, a separate room being provided for the remainder of the corps of editors, in the rear end of the same building. It is separated from the office and composing room by a partition about seven feet high, and the wall is hidden to nearly the same hight by the library of Mr. M.

On Thursday evening, about seven o'clock, a pistol was fired by some one on the sidewalk in front of the room, the ball passing through the window and directly over the editor's chair, striking the book-case and glanding from this over the patition into the composing-room. Mr. Moliter has not occupied the room for some days, but a light was in it at the time, and one of the attackes of the office, who, it appears, was mistaken for the editor. An effort was made to discover the assessin, but when the street was reached he had disappeared, and every endeaver since has met with the same fate.

REGULATIONS FOR LENT.—The first day of Lent, or Ash-Wednesday, the present year falls upon the 22d of February, the anniversary of Washington's birth-day. The following are the regulations for this season of facting, which continues forty days and closes with Easter Sunday:

f. All persons who have completed their twenty-first year, and who are not exempted from the obligation of fasting by sickness, deblity, old age, hard labor, or for other well-known reasons, are obliged to observe all the days of Lent, Sundays excepted, as fasting

2. On those days but one full meal is allowed, which should be taken about noon. 3. A cup of tea, coffee, or thin chocolate, with a bit of bread or a cracker, may be taken in the morning; and a collation, or food, not more than the fourth part of an ordinary meal, or not exceeding eight ounces, may be eaten in the evening. 4. Warm fish is not permitted at the colla-

6. The use of fiesh-meat is allowed, by dispensation, at every meal on Sundays, and at one meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the two Saturdays above named.

7. Those exempt from fasting are allowed the use of fiesh-meat at every meal on the days on which it is allowed to others but once.

8. Fish and fiesh are not allowed on any day of Lent at the same meal; oysters are fish.

9. Eggs, milk, cheese and butter can be used without distinction of days; but abstinction from all these is recommended on Good Friday.

Highway Robber.—About eleven o'clock last night, a man named John Hamilton was knocked down, on Seventh-street, near Walnut, and robbed of a porte-monnaic containing between nine and ten dollars, all the money he had about him at the time. The blow seemed to have been dealt by a strong arm which wielded a heavy slung-shot, and although quite a severe one, is not likely to prove at all dangerous. The man resides on Smith-street, and was accompanied thither by some friends whom he met shortly after the occurrence, and who furnished us with the facts.

SINGULAR HALLUCINATION.—A man in this city believes that he closely resembles Christ in face and form, and also that he carries about with him the mystic power of making every person happy who but listens to his platitudes or touches his garments. He likewise pretends to cure the sick by the stroke of his hand, to change water into wine by mumbling a few incoherant sentences, and afterward changing the vessels. Unlike his prototype, however, he is very fond of secular amusements, and never fails to witness a theatrical performance or an opera, to which he can performance or an opera, to which he can gain admission gratis; and although he is said to have no tasts whatever, for the purpose of gratifying his singular curiosity, in this respect, he besieges every one with whom he comes in contact, and will not be satisfied unless they accompany him.

THE WEATHER AND THE WEEK .- The weather has been somewhat varied this week, but rather cold, though pleasant. The city has been somewhat dull commercially, as usual in the month of February; the wholsale houses preparing for the spring trads. The retail merchants have been doing a very fair business, however, as they generally do at all seasons.

The hotels have been tolerably filled with strangers; but there have been enough to be comfortable.

Amusements have been pretty well attended; the Opers-house doing more than the theaters, because more attractive in its programme. A number of balls, including manquerades, have token place, and on the whole the week was quite lively.

COVINGTON NEWS.

REDEMPTION OF SCHOOL SCAIR.—The amount of money on hand belonging to the School Fund being insufficient to redeem all the outstanding serip, a pro rate payment will be made on the 15th of March next, on all serip presented previous to that time. All other will remain unredeemed until more funds are accumulated. A TRACKER CRARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BAT-

A TRACHER CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A few days since, Mr. Lewis Richardson, a school teacher in South Covington, attempted to correct a fad named Harris, aged about thirteen years, who had been guilty of some misconduct, whereupon the latter grow bolsterous, and a severe chartisement became necessary. The boy was conquered, but his mother was not. She had Richardson arrested, and a jury-trial took place before Esq. Harrison, day before yesterday, which resulted in a disagreement of the jury. It will be tried a second time before Esq. Eggleston to-day. TRUTH STRUMENT HAY PROPIET AN ASTURE MEMBER.—In successoring to picture a case of human wretchedness, sufficiently vivid to startle, there is no occusion for the novellet to tax his brain, and patht imaginary scenes; he needs but to write the platin, unvarnished truth, as developed in almost every city of ten thousand inhabitants, and he narrates a tragedy whose finale is milicient to mar, nay,

A case of this kind has recently occurred in this city. In an obscure alloy, in a tonoment scarcely capable of sheltering swins, live two ciderty females, their two daughters, now arrived at womanhood, and numerous other small children of hoth sex. Their westohed hovel is almost destitute of every thing which might reasonably be termed furniture, and notwithstanding the damp and disogreeable atmosphere, they have lived without feel for several days; and a few loaves of bread is all the provision the wretched ones have been able to procure during the same period.

have been able to procure during the same period.

Such misery, if confined to those whose follies and frailties have produced it, would be stripped of half its horrors; but such is not the case, as generally, and in this case particularly, it is visited with double force upon innocent children, whose youthful aspirations, hopes, and desires, are thus early blasted.

Should our city authorities assist such wrethness as these, the subsistence furnished would be wasted upon vagrants who are frequenters of such desire of infamy, and the really deserving—the childless—would be left to suffer as if no relief had been granted. For this reason, the hand of charity, otherwise so liberal, is withheld in this instance. Their only substance is procured as the price of that shame which originally reduced them to the position they now occupy. A portion of these females have heretofore been inmates of our Jails, but correction of this character, as is usually the case, entirely failed to work reformation.

The question naturally occurs, what can be done in the matter? Shall the remaining children be permitted to continue with their parents until they too shall follow in the footsteps of their elder sisters, until their rirtue shall be sold by unnatural methers for a price? We hope not. Yet the jail, where is congregated all the villainy of the county, iq not a suitable receptacle for them; the poor-houses filled with inmates of the same character with their own mothers, is little better. Besides, the edium attached to both would adhere to the unfortunate once forever, and the stigms, like the mark of Cain, would be ineffaceable. An orphan asylum, one in which all friendless and neglected children can be gathered together, educated and directed in industrial pursuits, is emphatically a necessity. In almost every instance, ten years of maintenance in an asylum of this kind would save that number of years of maintenance in the jail at some future period. The numerous vagrants who are now habitues of the Police Court, will, we think, fully sustain our assertion. In nothing could the money of the benevolent be so profitably employed as in such an enterprise. Once organize such an institution, and its future advantages would forever procure for it the assistance of the philanthrepist.

NEWPORT NEWS.

NEWPORT NEWS.

Cracuit Court Yesterday.—The day was chiefly consumed in deciding equity cases and making orders, and granting decrees.

The Grand Jury found indictments against Barry Taylor and Austin T. Earle, for carrying concealed weapons, and sgainst John Cooper, Wm. Robinson and Geo. Bayer, for grand largeny. The ball of the three latter was fixed at $500 each.

First Reservant.—Governor Megoffin has remitted the fine of $50 imposed upon John Hare, on Monday last, for keeping a tippling-house. Mr. Magoffin is certainly a very accommodating man.

RIVER NEWS.

The Ohio is still rising at this point, and all the way down from Pittsburg. Here the swell for the twenty-four hours ending last evening was about eighteen inches, with eleven feet in the channel from hear to Louisville, and nearly streem feet below that city. The upper tributaries are still contributing freely to the main stream.

The weather was raw and cold yesterday, (though not freezing) until evening, when the temperature lowered and a slight rain fell. At midnight the weather was still wet.

Business at the Landing was rather quiet yesterday, freights being scarcer than they had been for a day or two previous. Those for the upper ports were eight, but those for Southern ports were more brisk. Bates at the close of yesterday were:

THE WATER IN THE CHARMEL.—It is of importance to shippers to have accurate reports daily, of the water in the channel hence to Louisville. The Chamber of Commerce gets a daily report from a record made by the engineer of our City Water Works. The standard is, from measurement taken three years ago, at a bar below the city, and is subject to a change in low water by cutting out and filling up, when the water is higher. The reports made on 'Change do not show the depth of water except on Cullom's Riffle.
